Pure Text Annotator PDF Manual Test
Case 1: Basic navigation and search
This PDF contains a real selectable text layer.
Search target: anchor-ready phrase.
Select and annotate: stable geometry anchor.
Cross-line selection begins on this line
and continues on this second line.

Case 2: Repeated text and alignment
Repeated target: Shared phrase for ambiguity.
A different sentence separates the repetitions.
Repeated target: Shared phrase for ambiguity.
Annotate either occurrence and inspect its page geometry.
Search with slash and repeat with n or N.

Case 3: Page boundaries and multi-page selection
Page three verifies visible page headings in the text projection.
The source pane must remain read-only.
BEGIN CROSS PAGE selection starts in this sentence.
Continue the visual selection through the page boundary.

Case 4: Multi-page selection destination
END CROSS PAGE selection finishes in this sentence.
A multi-page PDF annotation should store two fragments.
The fragment page indexes should be 2 and 3.
The original PDF must remain unchanged.